

The Statistical Law

We, Qaboos bin Said, Sultan of Oman

The Statistical Law

Having perused the Basic Law of the State promulgated by Royal Decree No. 101/96,
And the Statistical Law promulgated by Royal Decree No. 87/88,
The Royal Decree No. 84/97 amending the names of some ministries, establishing the Ministry of Endowments and Religious Affairs, and abolishing the Ministry of Development,

And in the exigencies of the public interest;

Article (1):

In the application of the provisions of this Law, each of the following words and expressions shall have the meaning set against it:

- A. The Ministry: Ministry of National Economy.
- B. The Minister: Minister of National Economy.
- C. The Secretary General: the Secretary General of the Ministry of National Economy.
- D. The Undersecretary: the Undersecretary for Development Affairs, Ministry of National Economy.
- E. Directorate General: Directorate General of Social Statistics or the Directorate General of Economic Statistics, Ministry of National Economy.
- F. Director General: Director General of Social Statistics or Director General of Economic Statistics, Ministry of National Economy.
- G. Government units: Ministries, public corporations and establishments.
- H. Private entities: All private companies, establishments, proprietors of general, handicrafts, professionals vocational, cooperative and other private entities.
- I. The Committee: The committee stipulated in Article (9) of this Law.
- J. Statistical data: All the administrative statistical figures and data that are collected through statistical surveys pertaining to the economic, social and cultural life of the country as well as every thing concerning the society and its activities.
- K. Statistical surveys: The process of collecting statistical data whether in comprehensive or in a sample survey approach.
- L. Population census: The process of conducting a comprehensive counting of population in the Sultanate together with the counting of the population in the districts and municipalities.

Article (2):

A population census shall be carried out every 10 years, and a Royal Decree shall be issued in this regard specifying the data to be collected and the methods to be used to serve the economic development purposes according to a work plan to be formulated by the Directorate General.

Article (3):

The Directorate General shall be the authority responsible for publishing the data and results of statistical surveys and for the coordination and analysis of information and preparing the same for publication.

Article (4):

As an exemption from the provisions of Article (3) above Government units may gather and publish the statistical data that falls within the scope of the committee stipulated in Article (9) of this Law. These units are required to provide the Directorate General with copies of such data.

The private entities may conduct statistical surveys concerning the marketing of their products or services for their own utilization. The data collected according to this article shall not be published.

Article (5):

The Information and Publication Center of the Ministry of National Economy, in cooperation with the Directorate General, shall publish the following:

1. A national statistical yearbook that includes all the statistical data available, that are important for the country's economic and social advancement realized in various fields.
2. A quarterly bulletin of the main statistical indicators.
3. A monthly bulletin reflecting the main economic and social indicators.
4. Any other specialized periodicals that need to be issued.
5. Non-periodical publications that indicate results of the statistical surveys conducted.

Article (6):

All government units, private entities and individuals shall be obliged to provide all the data requested by the Directorate General within the issues falling under their respective jurisdiction. Full cooperation shall be extended to these units to reflect the whole truth. The Ministry of Defense and other security authorities shall be exempted from the provisions of this article, unless they allow according to a special written permission.

Article (7):

The General Security authorities shall, if requested, assist those assigned for conducting the surveys or the census, should they be required to do so.

appropriate way.

Article (8):

All the individual data, as per the provisions of this law, concerning any statistics or census are considered confidential. It is disclose such data to any individual or public organization without the consent of the concerned, and it is also not allowed to use

It is forbidden to use any individual statistical data to create any financial burden, and it should not be used as an evidence of against the provider of incorrect information.

Article (9):

A statistical advisory committee shall be formed under the chairmanship of the Secretary General and include the following mem

- Undersecretary for Development Affairs, Ministry of National Economy
- Executive President of the Central Bank of Oman.
- Undersecretary of the Ministry of Information.
- Undersecretary for Labour Affairs, Ministry of Social Affairs, Labour and Vocational Training.⁽¹⁾
- Undersecretary for Planning Affairs, Ministry of Health.
- Undersecretary for Educational Planning and Projects, Ministry of Education.
- Undersecretary of the Ministry of Agriculture and Fisheries
- Undersecretary for Commerce and Industry, Ministry of Commerce and Industry.
- Undersecretary of the Ministry of Civil Service.
- Representative of Royal Oman Police.
- Representative of Sultan Qaboos University.
- Director General of Social Statistics.
- Director General of Economic Statistics.

This Committee shall review the regulations prepared by the Ministry as per this law subject for approval by the Minister. In addit the statistical data. In particular the Committee shall undertake the following:

- a. Approval of long-term economic and social statistical plans as well as annual plans prepared by the Ministry and the oth
- b. Coordination of statistical works and activities in the Sultanate.
- c. Determining the priorities for statistical studies, surveys and censuses according to the various government units?needs

- d. Standardization of concepts and statistical terms in the Sultanate as well as monitoring the implementation of international standards.
- e. Determining the methodology of conducting the statistical operations and the technical methods that should be followed, and upgrading of the level of accuracy and promptness in official statistics.
- f. Reviewing the costs of specialized statistical operations of all government units and submit comments to the concerned units.
- g. Encouragement of statistical research and studies in various fields and at various levels. To work toward disseminating statistical personnel to work in the statistical field.
- h. Approval of the publishing of the official results of the statistics been conducted or collected in periodical or special reports, confidential. The Committee may seek cooperation of a number of experts and specialists depending on the nature of the work.

Article (10):

Without prejudice to any harsher punishment stipulated by any other law, any person who commits the following shall be sentenced to a fine of five hundred Omani Rials or both punishments:

- a. Violates the confidentiality of individual statistical data.
- b. Obtain, through cheating or threatening, individual statistical data that is confidential according to the provisions of this Law.
- c. Knowingly collect or publish incorrect data, statistical surveys or census.
- d. Deliberately obstruct any of the works of data collection by way of surveys or censuses approved in the Directorate General of Statistics.

Any person who refuses to provide the required data or knowingly provide incorrect data as per the provisions of this Law shall be considered as refusing to provide such data, unless he/she provides the required data within the specified date.