8. Maintenance of registers.

8. Maintenance of registers. (1) The occupier of every cotton ginning factory shall maintain at the factory, in such form as may be prescribed

(a) a register containing the record of the amount of cotton received daily in the factory for ginning, the names of persons from whom it is received, and the quantity received from each person, and

ginning register containing a record of the dates on which the cotton has been ginned for each person.

(2) The occupier of every cotton pressing factory shall maintain at the factory, in such form as may be prescribed, a press register containing a daily record of the number of bales pressed in the factory, the serial number of each bale, and the name of the person for whom it has been pressed.

(3) The occupier of every cotton seed oil factory shall maintain such registers as may be prescribed.

(4) The occupier of a factory shall be bound to produce the registers maintained under this section whenever so required by an Inspector and the occupier of a cotton pressing factory shall be bound to furnish to the prescribed authority, if so required by it in writing, a copy, certified as correct by the occupier, of the entry relating to any specified bale, made in the press register maintained at the factory under the provisions of sub-section (2).

(5) No register required to be maintained under this section shall be destroyed until after the expiration of three years from the date of the last entry borne by it.

(6) If

any factory, any register required to be maintained under this section is not maintained or is maintained in a form other than the prescribed form; or any

(ii)

entry in any such register is proved to be false in any material particular; or any such register is destroyed before the expiration of the period referred to in sub-section (5),

occupier of the factory shall be punishable with [\[24\]](#) [imprisonment which may extend to three months and with fine not less than fifteen thousand rupees].

(7) If the occupier of any factory fails to produce any register or to furnish a certified copy of an entry when so required under sub-section (4), or furnishes a certified copy of such entry knowing or having reason to believe such copy to be false, he shall be punishable with fine [\[25\]](#) [not less than fifteen thousand rupees], and if he has previously been convicted of any offence under this sub-section, [\[26\]](#) [he shall be punishable with imprisonment not less than three months].

9. Liability on change of occupancy.

9. Liability on change of occupancy. (1) A change in the occupancy of any factory shall be intimated, in writing to the prescribed authority by both the previous and the new occupier, within thirty days of the date on which the change takes place.

(2) On a change in the occupancy of any factory

(a) the previous occupier shall hand over to the new occupier the registers maintained in respect of the factory under section 8 and obtain from the new occupier a receipt in this behalf; and

new occupier shall forthwith report to the prescribed authority any default on the part of the previous occupier in complying with the provisions of this sub-section or in maintaining the registers in accordance with the provisions of section 8.

(3) If default is made by the previous occupier in handing over to the new occupier any register which he is required to hand over to him, or either of them makes default in making any report, the previous or the new occupier, as the case may be, shall be punishable with fine [\[27\]](#) [not less than fifteen thousand rupees].

10. Returns of a ginning factory.

10. Returns of a ginning factory. (1) The occupier of every cotton ginning factory shall furnish to the prescribed authority, within such time and in such form as may be prescribed, weekly returns showing the quantity of cotton ginned in the factory

since

the commencement of the cotton year to the end of that week.

(2) The prescribed authority shall compile from the weekly returns received under sub-section (1), a statement showing the total quantity of cotton ginned in the Province during the week to which the returns relate and from the commencement of the cotton year to the end of that week and publish such statement in such manner as Government may direct:

Provided that the quantity of cotton ginned in any individual factory shall not be published.

(3) If default is made in furnishing any return as required by sub-section (1), the occupier of the factory shall be punishable with fine [\[28\]](#) [not less than fifteen thousand rupees].

(4) Where the occupier of a ginning factory has notified to the prescribed authority that the work of ginning cotton in that factory has been suspended, it shall not be necessary for him to submit weekly returns under sub-section (1) until such work has been resumed.

11. Returns of a pressing factory.

11. Returns of a pressing factory. (1) The occupier of every cotton pressing factory shall furnish to the prescribed authority, within such time and in such form as may be prescribed, weekly returns showing the total number of bales of cotton pressed in the factory

the preceding week and their approximate average net weight; and

(b)

since

the commencement of the cotton year to the end of that week.

(2) The prescribed authority shall compile from the weekly returns received under sub-section (1), a statement showing the total number of bales pressed in the Province during the week to which the returns relate and from the commencement of the cotton year to the end of that week, and publish such statement in such manner as Government may direct:

Provided that the number of bales pressed in an individual factory shall not be published.

(3) If default is made in furnishing any return as required by sub-section (1), the occupier of the factory shall be punishable with [\[29\]](#) [imprisonment which may extend to three months but not less than one month and with fine not less than fifteen thousand rupees].

(4) Where the occupier of a cotton pressing factory has notified to the prescribed authority that the work of pressing bales in that factory has been suspended, it shall not be necessary for him to submit weekly returns under sub-section (1) until such work has been resumed.

[\[30\]](#)

11-A. Submission of monthly returns by cotton ginning and cotton pressing factories.

[11-A. Submission of monthly returns by cotton ginning and cotton pressing factories. (a)
during the preceding month; and

(b)
since
the commencement of the cotton year to the end of that month.

(2) If default is made in furnishing any return as required by sub-section (1), the occupier of the factory shall be punished with [\[31\]](#) [imprisonment which may extend to three months but not less than one month and with fine not less than fifteen thousand rupees].

(3) Where the occupier of the factory has notified to the prescribed authority that the work of ginning cotton or pressing cotton bales in that factory has been suspended, it shall not be necessary for him to submit monthly returns under sub-section (1) until the work is resumed.]

12. Returns of a cotton seed oil factory.

12. Returns of a cotton seed oil factory. (1) The occupier of every cotton seed oil factory shall furnish to the prescribed authority, within such time and in such form as may be prescribed, weekly returns showing the quantity of cotton seed crushed in the factory

(b)
since
the commencement of the cotton year to the end of that week.

(2) The prescribed authority shall compile from the weekly returns received under sub-section (1), a statement showing the total quantity of cotton seed crushed in the Province during the week to which the returns relate and from the commencement of the cotton year to the end of that week, and publish such statement in such manner as Government may direct:

Provided that the quantity of cotton seed crushed in any individual factory shall not be published.

(3) If default is made in furnishing any return as required by sub-section (1), the occupier of the factory shall be punishable with fine [\[32\]](#) [not less than fifteen thousand rupees].

(4) Where the occupier of a cotton seed oil factory has notified to the prescribed authority that the work of crushing cotton seed in that factory has been suspended, it shall not be necessary for him to submit weekly returns under sub-section (1) until such work has been resumed.

13. Marking of bales.

13. Marking of bales. (1) The occupier of every cotton pressing factory shall cause every bale pressed in the factory to be marked, in such manner as may be prescribed, before it is removed from the factory, with a serial number and with the mark prescribed for the factory.

(2) Every bale which contains cotton from the crop relating to the current cotton year mixed with cotton from the crop relating to any previous cotton year shall be clearly marked, in the prescribed manner, to distinguish it from the bales containing exclusively cotton from the crop relating to the current cotton year.

(3) If any bale is removed from the premises of any cotton pressing factory without having been marked [\[33\]](#) [or is stored without marking beyond one week], as required by sub-section (1) or sub-section (2), the occupier of the factory shall be punishable with imprisonment which may extend to [\[34\]](#) [three months but not less than one month]

14. Scales and weights.

14. Scales and weights. (1) No scales or weights shall be used in any factory other than the scales and weights prescribed under the [\[35\]](#) [Punjab Weights and Measures (International System) Enforcement Act, 1975 (LII of 1975)].

[\[36\]](#) [(1-a)

(2) If in any factory, any scales or weights are used in contravention of the provisions of sub-section (1), the occupier of the factory shall be punishable with fine [\[37\]](#) [not less than fifteen thousand rupees].

15. Structural requirements.

15. Structural requirements. (1) No person shall commence the construction of any new factory or any extension of an existing factory, which is likely to increase its capacity for ginning or pressing cotton or crushing cotton seed, unless he has been granted a licence under this sub-section by such authority, in such form, subject to such conditions and on payment of such fees, as may be prescribed.

(2) A licence under sub-section (1) shall be valid for such period as may be specified therein, and may be revalidated, on payment of the prescribed fee, [\[38\]](#) [by the competent authority for a specified period].

(3) In the case of cotton ginning factories, the construction of which is commenced after the commencement of this Ordinance

(a) gin-houses shall be provided with separate entrances and exit for the bringing in of unginning and the taking out of ginned cotton, respectively; and

factories shall be constructed in accordance with plans and specifications previously approved by the prescribed authority:

Provided that nothing in this sub-section shall apply to any factory in which only roller gins are used and where the number of such gins is not more than four.

(4) In any cotton ginning factory, whether constructed before or after the commencement of this Ordinance

(a) no alterations or additions, whether structural or in plant or machinery, shall be made so as to minimise the degree of compliance of the factory as a whole with the requirements set forth in clauses (a) and (b) of sub-section (3);

[\[39\]](#) [* * *]

every

addition, whether structural or in plant or machinery, made after the commencement of this Ordinance, shall be made in accordance with the plans and specifications previously approved by the prescribed authority [\[40\]](#) [; and]

[\[41\]](#) [(c)

saws of each and every ginning machine shall be replaced with new ones after ginning of three thousand bales:]

Provided that nothing in this sub-section shall apply to any factory in which, after any alteration or addition has been made, only single roller gins, not more than four in number are left.

(5) The occupier of a cotton ginning factory, whether erected before or after the coming into force of this Ordinance, shall provide in the factory such number of delinting machines as the prescribed authority may, by order in writing, direct.

(6) The occupier of every cotton pressing factory, in which cotton is handled on the ground floor, shall cause the pressing-house to be paved or provided with other suitable flooring to the satisfaction of the prescribed authority.

(7) If the occupier of any [\[42\]](#) [small gin or middle gin] factory fails to comply with any of the provisions of this section applicable to the factory or, an order made under sub-section (5), he shall be punishable with imprisonment which may extend to [\[43\]](#) [six months but not less than one month].

(8) Where the occupier of a factory has been convicted of an offence punishable under sub-section (7), the prescribed authority may serve on him an order in writing directing that such alterations shall be made, or so many delinting machines shall be provided in the factory, by a specified date, as in the opinion of the authority, are necessary to secure compliance with the provisions of sub-section (3), (4), (5) or (6), as the case may be.

(9) Where the alterations are not carried out or the delinting machines are not provided, in accordance with the order served on the occupier of the factory under sub-section (8), the prescribed authority may serve on the occupier of the factory an order in writing directing that the work ginning or pressing of cotton in such factory shall be suspended until the alterations have been carried out or the delinting machines have been provided in accordance with the order made under sub-section (8).

(10) The occupier of a factory shall be liable to fine [\[44\]](#) [not less than five thousand rupees] for each day on which cotton is ginned or pressed in the factory in contravention of an order served on him under sub-section (9).

Explanation For the purposes of this section, the equivalents of other types of gins, such as double roller gins and saw gins, in terms of single roller gins, shall be such as may be prescribed.

16. Prohibition on admixture of different varieties of cotton.

16. Prohibition on admixture of different varieties of cotton. Government may, by notification, declare that in any area specified in such notification, [\[45\]](#) [no variety except the one allowed shall be grown] no cotton which contains an admixture of different varieties of cotton, in excess of the prescribed limits, shall be ginned or pressed in any factory [\[46\]](#) [and no person shall sell seed of any variety/ hybrid except the one allowed to be grown in the area.]
