3. When a claims representative, appointed in the Republic of Lithuania, quantifies the damage caused in the territory of the Republic of Lithuania and solves a matter of compensation payment, the provisions of this paragraph concerning the procedure for quantifying damage and paying compensation shall be applicable. Nevertheless the injured party has the right, at his own initiative and on its own account to apply to the experts to assess the size of the damage.

4. In case of personal injury, the size of damage shall include all of the damage sustained by a natural person. After the insurance undertaking has satisfied the claim of the injured third party under a voluntary insurance contract, it shall not be entitled to claim reimbursement for the amount so paid from the Bureau.

12. The Bureau may not request from the injured third party to prove in any way that the responsible person is unable or refuses to compensate for damage.

13. In the event of a dispute between the insurer and the Bureau as to which of them should compensate the injured third party, the compensation shall be paid by the Bureau within 30 days of the date when the injured third party presented the claim to the Bureau pending resolution of the dispute. Where it is impossible to investigate the circumstances as necessary to determine the basis for and the amount of compensation within 30 days, the compensation shall be paid within the time limits specified in paragraph 2 of this Article. If, after the Bureau has paid the compensation, it emerges that the compensation should have been paid by the insurer, the insurer shall reimburse the Bureau for the compensation so paid and for any other amounts related to the payment of compensation.

After the Bureau pays compensation or part thereof, the injured third party shall not have the right to request to be paid that part of compensation from the responsible person or the responsible insurer who is going bankrupt.

4. Upon having presented a claim in the cases provided for in paragraph 1 or 3 of this Article, or after the Bureau takes over the documents proving the damage, which are in possession of the insurer who is going bankrupt, the injured third party may not be included in the list of creditors of the insurer who is going bankrupt.

5. Upon having received a claim of the third injured party and the documents about the circumstances of a road accident and the damage, the Bureau shall, on the basis of this Law and other legal acts regulating handling and settlement of the claim assigned to its competence, shall handle the claim and, having established the grounds for payment of compensation and its amount, shall pay compensation to the injured third party.

6. The Bureau must pay compensation within 2 months from the receipt of the documents concerning the damage or from the day of the receipt of a claim from the injured third party. In case of failure to investigate the circumstances which are necessary to establish the grounds for payment of compensation or to set the amount of compensation, or the Bureau has not received all the documents necessary for payment of compensation, compensation shall be paid within the time limits specified in paragraph 2 of Article 19 of this Law, however, the Bureau must pay the undisputable portion of the compensation within 2 months from the receipt of the documents from the insurer or from the day of the receipt of a claim of the injured third party.

7. The policyholder who in the case referred to in paragraph 6 of Article 19 of this Law has acquired the right to compensation, shall enjoy all rights of the injured third party, laid down in this Article.

8. The Bureau which pays compensation pursuant to this Article shall become the creditor of the insurer who is going bankrupt.
