Section 17.

The provisions of Section 9 and Section 10 shall apply mutatis mutandis to the sub-committee, specialized sub-committee and inquiry sub-committee .

CHAPTER II

Office of the Competition Commission

Section 18.

There shall be established the Office of the Competition Commission in the Department of Internal Trade, Ministry of Commerce, with the Director-General of the Department of Internal Trade as the Secretary-General, who shall be the superior official responsible for the official affairs of the Office, with the powers and duties as follows:

- (1) to carry out administrative tasks of the Commission, the Appellate Committee and sub-committees appointed by the Commission;
- (2) to prescribe regulations for the purpose of the work performance of the Office of the Competition Commission;
- (3) to monitor the movement and oversee the conduct of business operators and report the same to the Commission;
- (4) to conduct studies, analyses and research in relation to goods, services, and business conduct and make recommendations and give opinions to the Commission on the prevention of market domination, merger of businesses and reduction and restriction of competition in the operation of businesses;
- (5) to receive complaints by which it is alleged by any person that violation of this Act has occurred and to carry out its preliminary consideration for submission to the Commission, in accordance with the regulations prescribed and published in the Government Gazette by the Commission;
- (6) to co-ordinate with Government agencies or agencies concerned, for the purpose of the performance of duties under this Act;
- (7) to perform the acts in the implementation of Notifications, regulations and resolutions of the Commission and perform such acts as entrusted by the Commission, the Appellate Committee or the sub-committee appointed by the Commission.

Section 19.

In the execution of this Act, the competent official shall have the following powers;

- (1) to issue a written summons requiring any person to give statements, facts or written explanations or furnish accounts, records, documents or any evidence for examination or supplementing his consideration,
- (2) to enter the place of business, place of production, place of distribution, place of purchase, warehouse or place of service of the business operator or of any person or other place reasonably suspected to have therein a violation of the provisions of this Act, for the purpose of examining the conformity with this Act or for searching and seizing evidence or property which may be confiscated under this Act or arresting the offender under this Act without a warrant of search in the following cases:
 - (a) where a flagrant offence is evidently being committed in the place;
 - (b) where a person having committed a flagrant offence has, while being pursued, taken refuge, or there are serious grounds for suspecting that such person is concealing, in the place;
 - (c) where there are reasonable grounds for suspecting that the evidence or property which may be confiscated under this Act is found in the place and there are reasonable grounds to believe that by reason of delay in obtaining a warrant of search the evidence or property is likely to be removed, concealed, destroyed or transformed from its original state;
 - (d) where the person to be arrested is the owner of the place and there is a warrant for such arrest or such arrest may be made without a warrant;

Provided that, for these purposes, the competent official has the power to inquire into facts or summon accounts, records, documents or other evidence from the business operator or from the person concerned or order such persons who are in such place to perform necessary acts;

(3) to collect or take goods, in a reasonable quantity, as samples for an examination or analysis without payment of the prices of such goods, in accordance with the rules prescribed by the Commission in the Government Gazette;

(4) to attach documents, accounts, records or evidence for the purpose of examination and taking legal proceedings under this Act.

Section 20.

In the performance of duties of the competent official, a person concerned shall render reasonable assistance.

Section 21.

In the performance of duties, the competent official shall produce an identification card to the persons concerned.

The identification card shall be in accordance with the form prescribed by the Minister in the Government Gazette.

Section 22.

The competent official shall procure service of the written summons under Section 13 paragraph 3, Section 19 (1) or Section 44 (3) by directing it at the domicile or the place of business of the person named in the summons between sunrise and sunset or during working hours of such person or may send it by registered post requiring acknowledgement of receipt thereof.

In the case where the competent official serves the summons under paragraph one but the person named in the summons refuses to accept it without reasonable cause, the competent official shall request the administrative or police official to accompany the competent official for the purpose of leaving the summon on the spot. If the competent official does not meet the person named in the summons at his or her domicile or place of business, the summons may be served on any sui juris person who is living or working in that dwelling-place or place of business. If nobody is met or nobody agrees to accept the summons on behalf of the person named therein, such summons shall be posted in a conspicuous place at the domicile or the place of business in the presence of the administrative or police official who accompanies as witness.

When the competent official has carried out the act under paragraph one or paragraph two, it shall be deemed that the person named in the summons has received it. In the case of the posting of the summons, it shall be deemed that such summons is received upon the lapse of five days as from the date of its posting. If the service is made by a registered post requiring acknowledgement of its receipt, it shall be deemed that the summons is received upon the lapse of five days as from the date of its receipt.

Section 23.

In the execution of this Act, members, members of the Appellate Committee or of the sub-committee, Secretary-General, and' competent officials shall be the officials under the Penal Code.

Section 24.

For the purpose of arresting offenders under this Act, the competent official shall have the same powers as the administrative or police officer under the Criminal Procedure Code.

An arrest of the offender may be made without a warrant of arrest when a flagrant offence is evidently being committed or when there is any other circumstance under which the Criminal Procedure Code permits the administrative or police official to make an arrest without a warrant of arrest.

CHAPTER III

Anti-Monopoly

Section 25.

A business operator having market domination shall not act in any of the following manners:

- (1) unreasonably fixing or maintaining purchasing or selling prices of goods or fees for services;
- (2) unreasonably fixing compulsory conditions, directly or indirectly, requiring other business operators who are his or her customers to restrict services, production, purchase or distribution of goods, or restrict opportunities in purchasing or selling goods, receiving or providing services or obtaining credits from other business operators;
- (3) suspending, reducing or restricting services, production, purchase, distribution, deliveries or importation without justifiable reasons, or destroying or causing damage to goods in order to reduce the quantity to be lower than the market demand;
- (4) intervening in the operation of business of other persons without justifiable reasons.

Section 26.

A business operator shall not carry out a business merger which may result in monopoly or unfair competition as prescribed and published in the Government Gazette by the Commission unless the Commission's permission is obtained.

The publication by the Commission under paragraph one shall specify the minimum amount or number of market share, sale volume, capital, shares or assets in respect of which the merger of business is governed thereby.

The merger of business under paragraph one shall include:

- (1) a merger made by a producer with another producer, by a distributor with another distributor, by a producer with a distributor, or by a service provider with another service provider, which has the effect of maintaining the status of one business and terminating the status of the other business or creating a new business;
- (2) a purchase of the whole or part of assets of another business with a view to controlling business administration policies, administration and management;
- (3) a purchase of the whole or part of shares of another business with a view to controlling business administration policies, administration and management.

The application by a business operator for the permission under paragraph one shall be submitted to the Commission under Section 35.

Section 27.

Any business operator shall not enter into an agreement with another business operator to do any act amounting to monopoly, reduction of competition or restriction of competition in the market of any particular goods or any particular service in any of the following manners:

- (1) fixing selling prices of goods or services as a single price or as agreed or restricting the sale volume of goods or services;
- (2) fixing buying prices of goods or services as a single price or as agreed or restricting the purchase volume of goods or services;
- (3) entering into an agreement with a view to having market domination or market control;

(4) fixing an agreement or condition in a collusive manner in order to enable one party to win a bid or a tender for the goods or services or in order to prevent one party from participating in a bid or a tender for the goods or services;

(5) fixing geographical areas in which each business operator may distribute or restrict the distribution of goods or services, or fixing customers to whom each business operator may sell goods or provide services to the exclusion of other business operators from competing in the distribution of such goods or services;

(6) fixing geographical areas in which each business operator may purchase goods or services or fixing persons from whom business operators may purchase goods or services;

(7) fixing the quantity of goods or services in which each business operator may produce, purchase, distribute, or provide with a view to restricting the quantity to be lower than the market demand;

(8) reducing the quality of goods or services to a level lower than that in the previous production, distribution or provision, whether the distribution is made at the same or at a higher price;

(9) appointing or entrusting any person as a sole distributor or provider of the same goods or services or the same kind of goods or services;

(10) fixing conditions or practice with regard to the purchase or distribution of goods or the provision of services in order to achieve the uniform or agreed practice.

In the case where it is commercially necessary that the acts under (5), (6), (7), (8), (9) or (10) be undertaken within a particular period of time, the business operator shall submit an application for permission to the Commission under Section 35.

Section 28.

A business operator who has business relation with business operators outside the Kingdom, whether it is on a contractual basis or through policies, partnership, shareholding or any other similar form, shall not carry out any act in order that a person residing in the Kingdom and intending to purchase goods or services for personal consumption will have restricted opportunities to purchase goods or services directly from business operators outside the Kingdom.

Section 29.

A business operator shall not carry out any act which is not free and fair competition and has the effect of destroying, impairing, obstructing, impeding or restricting business operation of other business operators or preventing other persons from carrying out business or causing their cessation of business.

Section 30.

The Commission shall have the power to issue a written order requiring a business operator who has market domination, with the market share of more than seventy five percent, to suspend, cease or vary the market share. For this purpose, the Commission may prescribe rules, procedure, conditions and time limit for compliance therewith.

Section 31.

In the case where the Commission considers that a business operator violates Section 25, Section 26, Section 27, Section 28 or Section 29, the Commission shall have the power to issue a written order requiring the business operator to suspend, cease, rectify or vary such act. For this purpose, the Commission may prescribe rules, procedure, conditions and time limit for compliance therewith.

The business operator who receives the order under paragraph one and disagrees therewith shall have the right to appeal under Section 46.

The business operator may not claim compensation from the Commission by reason that the Commission has issued the order under paragraph one.

Section 32.

In the consideration of the case under Section 31, the Commission must afford the business operator, members of the specialized subcommittee, members of the inquiry sub-committee or competent officials concerned reasonable opportunities to give explanations and present supporting evidence.

In issuing an order under Section 31, the Commission must specify reasons for such order both in questions of fact and in questions of law, and signatures of the members considering the case shall be entered.

The notification of the order under paragraph two shall be carried out within seven days as from the date of the Commission's order, and Section 22 shall apply mutatis mutandis.

Section 33.

The person receiving the order under Section 31 must comply with such order unless the Court or the Appellate Committee passes a judgment or issues an order suspending the execution thereof or revoking the order of the Commission.

Section 34.

In the case where the Court passes a judgment that any business operator is guilty of an offence under Section 25, Section 26, Section 27, Section 28 or Section 29, the Court shall issue an order requiring the business operator to suspend, cease, rectify or vary such act.

CHAPTER IV

Application for Permission and Consideration of the Application

Section 35.

Any business operator wishing to apply for permission to carry out the act under Section 26 or Section 27 (5), (6), (7), (8), (9) or (10) shall submit an application in accordance with the form, rules, procedure and conditions prescribed and published in the Government Gazette by the Commission.

The application must at least:

- (1) contain adequate reasons and specify necessity for the act;
- (2) specify the intended procedures therefore;
- (3) specify the duration therefore.

Section 36.

The Commission shall complete the consideration of the application under Section 35 within ninety days as from the date of its receipt; provided that the business operator, members of the specialized subcommittee or competent officials concerned must be afforded reasonable opportunities to give explanations and present supporting evidence.

In the case where the consideration cannot be completed within the time specified in paragraph one by reason of necessity, the Commission may grant an extension of time for not more than fifteen days, but the reasons and necessity for the extension shall also be recorded in the consideration and decision proceedings.

Section 37.

When the Commission has made an inquiry and is of the opinion that the application under Section 35 submitted by the business operator is reasonably necessary in the business, beneficial to business promotion, has no serious harm to the economy and has no effect on material and due interests of general consumers, the Commission shall issue a written order granting permission in favor of such business operator. But if the Commission issues an order rejecting permission, the order shall be notified in writing to the business operator without delay.

In granting permission under paragraph one, the Commission may fix the time or any condition for compliance by the business operator to whom permission is granted, and, if it is of the opinion that economic situations, facts or conduct relied on by the Commission in its consideration have changed, the Commission may amend, make addition to, or revoke such time or conditions at any time.

The business operator who receives the order of the Commission and disagrees with such order shall have the right to appeal under Section 46.

Section 38.

The Commission must specify reasons for the order granting or rejecting permission under Section 37 both in questions of fact and in questions of law and the order shall contain signatures of the members considering the application, and the provisions of Section 32 paragraph three shall apply mutatis mutandis.

Section 39.

The business operator to whom permission is granted under Section 37 must carry out the business within the scope, duration and conditions permitted by the Commission.

In the case where there is a violation of or failure to comply with paragraph one, the Commission shall have power to revoke the permission order under Section 37 in whole or in part and may also fix the time within which compliance is required.

CHAPTER V

Initiation of an Action for Compensation

Section 40.

The person suffering an injury in consequence of the violation of Section 25, Section 26, Section 27, Section 28 or Section 29 may initiate an action for claiming compensation from the violator.

In initiating an action for claiming compensation under paragraph one, the Consumer Protection Commission or an association under the law on consumer protection has the power to initiate an action for claiming compensation on behalf of consumers or members of the association, as the case may be.

Section 41.

If the action for claiming compensation under Section 40 is not submitted to the Court within one year as from the date the person suffering the injury has or ought to have had the knowledge of the ground thereof, the right to submit the action to the Court shall lapse.

CHAPTER VI

The Appeal

Section 42.

There shall be an Appellate Committee consisting of not more than seven qualified persons with knowledge and experience in law, economics, business administration or public administration appointed by the Council of Ministers as members.

The members of the Appellate Committee shall elect one member among themselves as Chairman.

The Director-General of the Department of Internal Trade shall appoint Government officials of the Department of Internal Trade to act as secretary and assistant secretaries.

Section 43.

The person appointed as member of the Appellate Committee must not be under the prohibitions under Section 7 and shall not be a member of the Commission.

Section 44.

The Appellate Committee shall have the following powers and duties:

- (1) to prescribe the rules and procedure for the appeal under Section 47 paragraph one;
- (2) to consider and decide on the appeal against an order of the Commission under Section 31 or Section 37;
- (3) to issue a written summons requiring the persons concerned to give statements or furnish documents or evidence for the purpose of the consideration of the appeal;
- (4) to issue an order suspending the execution of the order of the Commission under Section 31 or Section 37.

Section 45.

A member of the Appellate Committee shall hold office for a term of four years.

In the initial period, at the expiration of two years, three members of the Appellate Committee shall vacate office by drawing lots and such vacation of office by drawing lots shall be deemed to be the vacation of office at the expiration of the term.

The provisions of Section 9 paragraph three and Section 10 shall apply to the Appellate Committee mutatis mutandis.

Section 46.

The appeal against the order of the Commission under Section 31 and Section 37 shall be submitted to the Appellate Committee by the person receiving the order within thirty days as from the date of the knowledge of the Commission's order.

Section 47.

The rules and procedure for the appeal shall be as prescribed and published in the Government Gazette by the Appellate Committee.

The Appellate Committee shall consider and decide on the appeal within ninety days as from the date of the receipt thereof and notify the decision in writing to the appellant, and the provisions of Section 36 and Section 38 shall apply mutatis mutandis.

The decision of the Appellate Committee shall be final.

When the Appellate Committee has decided upon the appeal, the Commission and business operators shall comply with such decision.

CHAPTER VII

Penalties

Section 48.

Any person who fails to comply with the written summons issued by the specialized sub-committee, competent official or the Appellate Committee under Section 13 paragraph three, Section 19 (1) or Section 44 (3), as the case may be, shall be liable to imprisonment for a term not exceeding three months or to a fine not exceeding five thousand Baht or to both.

Section 49.

Any person who obstructs the performance of duties by the competent official under Section 19 (2), (3) or (4) or Section 22 shall be liable to imprisonment for a term not exceeding one year or to a fine not exceeding twenty thousand Baht or to both.

Section 50.

Any person who fails to render assistance to the competent official under Section 20 shall be liable to imprisonment for a term not exceeding one month or to a fine not exceeding two thousand Baht or to both.

Section 51.

Any person who violates Section 25, Section 26, Section 27, Section 28 or Section 29 or fails to comply with Section 39 shall be liable to imprisonment for a term not exceeding three years or to a fine not exceeding six million Baht or to both, and, in the case of the repeated commission of the offence, shall be liable to the double penalty.

Section 52.

Any person who fails to comply with the order of the Commission under Section 30 or Section 31 or with the decision of the Appellate Committee under Section 47 shall be liable to imprisonment for a term of one to three years or to a fine of two to six million Baht, and to a daily fine not exceeding fifty thousand Baht throughout the occurrence of such violation.

Section 53.

Any person who discloses information concerning the business or the operation of a business operator which, according to the ordinary course of dealing of the business operator, is the restrictive and confidential information and which such person has acquired or knew on account of the performance under this Act shall be liable to imprisonment for a term not exceeding one year, or to a fine not exceeding one hundred thousand Baht or to both, unless it is the disclosure in the performance of Government service or for the purpose of an inquiry or trial.

Any person who acquires or has the knowledge of any fact from the person under paragraph one and discloses such information in the manner likely to cause an injury to any person shall be liable to the same penalty.

Section 54.

In the case where the person who commits an offence punishable under this Act is a juristic person, then, the managing director, the managing partner or the person responsible for the operation of the business of the juristic person in such matter shall also be liable to the penalty provided by the law for such offence unless it is proved that such act has been committed without his or her knowledge or consent or he or she has already taken reasonable action for preventing the commission of such offence from occurring

Section 55.

The injured person in the offences under Section 51 and Section 54 may not institute a criminal action on his or her own motion but has the right to lodge a complaint with the Commission for consideration under this Act.

Section 56.

All offences under this Act which are punishable by fine or imprisonment for a term not exceeding one year shall be under the power of the Commission to settle the cases. In exercising such power, the Commission may entrust a sub-committee, the Secretary-General or a competent official to act on its behalf.

When the offender has paid the fine in the fixed amount within the specified time, the case shall be deemed settled in accordance with the provisions of the Criminal Procedure Code.

Transitory Provisions

Section 57.

In the case where a business operator is under necessity and has carried out the acts specified in Section 27 (5), (6), (7), (8), (9) or (10) on the day this Act comes into force, such person shall submit an application within ninety days as from the date of the entry into force of this Act, and when the application has been submitted, such business operator may continue to carry out the acts under Section 27 (5), (6), (7), (8), (9) or (10) until the notification of the result of the consideration of the application is received.
